Celebration of Life for Our Mom Annette Marie Hunter

Annette Marie Hunter was the middle child born on September 04, 1950 in Chester Pa at Sacred Heart Hospital to the late parents of Frank And Jessie Craig Jessie said Ann as she called her was always different from her sisters and a Drama Queen about mostly everything.

Annette was educated in the Chester School District in which she played the Clarinet & Field Hockey Annette graduated from Chester High School in 1968. From there Annette had married now predeceased Louis Stillis Sr her first husband who was a Merchant Seaman. Annette also went to Widener University with a Major in business Ann as she was called by everyone enjoyed her job at Comcast-Xfinity as a Retention Specialist for over 20 years until her retirement. Annette was loved by her customers who would call in to speak very highly of Annette in which she would get Paparazzi Award slips which led to many trips and prizes at her job One being Cancun where she took her best friend her sister Sylvia. Where their was one their was the other close by the two were inseparable.

Annette won lots of other things and places to go from contest like WDAS FM radio which was her favorite. She called and won so much you would have thought that that was her second job. Annette loved Horse racing at the track in her younger years she also loved dancing music shopping and the casino and her games on the computer website Pogo.

Her Life was her children who she gave Any and Everything. They would ask and she would provide Sky was the limit for them and her special Nieces and Nephews and her children's Friends at times Annette kept Louis and Arnetta in lots of activities with the Toby Farms Athletic Association in which she coached a couple different sports When Annette's children had their children they also were Spoiled as if they were Jay-Z & Beyonce. She was Mom Mom and Father to her Grands and the Great Grands too Annette was a bright light in those whom she loved She had a Fiery tongue and a wit to match.

Annette left a lasting empression on anyone she met. She enjoyed her Life to the fullest during her retirement. She was faced with Cancer and in true Annette fashion she fought for the past eight years before she was called home on October 16th, 2024.

Those who were blessed to be apart of her life know Annette is a light that could never be extinguished in the physical or spiritual realm. She will forever be loved and greatly missed.
