

Brian Hynson

September 15, 1958 - February 27, 2026

Brian Hynson aka “Dollar Bill” entered the world on September 15, 1958, born in Chester, PA. He transitioned on February 27, 2026, at Penn Medicine in Philadelphia, PA after a brief illness, surrounded by his family. He was preceded in death by his parents James Henry Hynson and Doris Ann Hynson, his grandparents, William and Leola Gary and James Johnson and Margaret Sullivan.

Brian’s early up-bringing was in Chester, PA and then in the earlier 1960’s his family moved to Twin Oaks, PA, where they lived on Broadway Avenue and then to Thomas Avenue and in 1995 a new home was built on Nicholas Court. As a life-long resident of Twin Oaks his formative years established a foundation for a simple and carefree life. He loved to reminisce about “the good old days” in his close-knit community, aka Twin Oaks Village. So many strong bonds of family and friendships were built in the village. Brian attended Chichester Senior High School. During his early adult life, he accepted Christ as his Savior. In the early eighties Brian joined Local Union #413 and worked as a laborer for a short period. Being adventurous, Brian joined the Merchant Marines, which gave him a taste of the world outside of Twin Oaks. In the late 1980’s he returned to Twin Oaks and rejoined Local Union #413; Brian worked many years for JJ White Construction Company. He followed in his father’s footsteps as a construction worker. Brian was a dedicated worker, in 2015 Brian retired after 30 plus years with Local 413.

Dollar Bill's Story

Dollar Bill loved good hats, nice footwear, and dressing with a style that was uniquely his own. He loved spending quality time with family and friends. He loved fishing with his buddies and going to the drag racing track. Dollar Bill loved watching Philadelphia Eagles. He loved his brother Kevin's Annual Family BBQ. He loved family vacations and travelling to Georgia and Florida for more family time. The softer side of Dollar Bill, included watching Lifetime Movies, Price Is Right, Let's Make A Deal and Family Feud. He loved working on board puzzles, until he discovered he could do them on his tablet. Let's not forget his monthly visit to the nail salon to get a Medi-Pedi.

Above all, Brian "Dollar Bill" loved his family ... he leaves to cherish in his memory two sons, Derrick Laury (Ivana) and Shimair Hynson; one granddaughter, Faith Laury; and his siblings James L. Hynson (Sharon), Robin M. Chalk (James), Darrell W. Hynson (Kathy), Kevin D. Hynson (Barbara), Michael D. Hynson (Ponda), Keith I. Hynson (Benicia), Margaret and Francis Ringgold; his beloved partner and best friend Hazel "Muffin" Baker; two aunts, Wilmenia Dowdell and Jeffery Hynson, and a host of extended family and friends.
