Burnie “Luqman” Majeed

June 12, 1947 – July 8, 2025

Burnie “Luqman” Majeed was born on June 12, 1947, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to the late Burnie Clark and Ida Ruth Lee. He was raised in both Chapel Hill, North Carolina and Chester, Pennsylvania, where he developed the values of hard work, family, and faith that shaped his life. A dedicated student and lifelong learner, Burnie earned his Associate Degree in Engineering from PIT and later completed his Bachelor’s Degree in Engineering at Cheyney University. He worked faithfully at Bethel for many years until his retirement. Burnie was a hardworking man who took great pride into his family. His love and commitment to raising his children and grandchildren showed in everything he did. He had a strong spiritual foundation and a deep passion for Islam. Burnie also studied, spoke, and taught Arabic as his second language.

One of Burnie’s most joyful experiences was his 10-day visit to Mecca, Saudi Arabia, which he shared with a host of friends. It was a deeply meaningful journey that brought him great happiness and peace

Burnie leaves behind his loving wife of 54 years, Geraldine Majeed, and a legacy of love and strength.

He is survived by his brothers Malcom Clark and Alex Lee, and his sister Brenda "Sue" Groom (Seldan "Sag" Groom). He is reunited in peace with his brothers Darryl Lee and Kevin Lee, and his sister Katherine "Muffet" Lloyd.

Burnie is also survived by his beloved children: daughters Mia Majeed, Kenya Majeed (Anthony Smith), and Rasheedah Kaplan (Edward Kaplan); sons Dane Wilson, Deon James, and Burnie Majeed (Tiffany Majeed). He is reunited in peace with his son Darren Majeed. He also leaves behind a host of cherished grandchildren and great-grandchildren who brought him so much joy.

Burnie will be remembered for his wisdom, devotion, and the love he poured into everyone around him
