

Carolyn Y. Sherman

March 22, 1969 - November 17, 2025

The beautiful and vibrant Carolyn Yvonne Sherman unfortunately passed away suddenly at age 56 on November 17, 2025.

Born on the 22nd of March in Chester, Pennsylvania to her parents Carolyn Ross and the late Wardell Sherman. She was the youngest of her mother's children. She was raised in a devoted and loving household. Growing up she quickly developed a reputation for her confidence, outspokenness, charisma, and her kindness. She was also extremely talented. She was a part of many different clubs and activities that consisted of theater, modeling, and childcare.

She graduated from Chester High from great class of '88. She incorporated her lifelong talents into her career choices throughout her life. First, she operated her own daycare business which was a pillar in the community. She helped raised and nurture so many beautiful babies while also raising her own. Overall, she held careers in behavioral health, education and nursing.

In her free time, Carolyn would often sing, dance, listen to music, play cards, cook amazing meals and spend time with her loving family and friends.

She is survived by her life partner Samuel Dickerson (Walam Bey), her children Anthony Sherman, La'Nai Sherman, Autumn Bey, Candace Bey and Nia Bey, and her only grandson Kingston "Dudu" Lighty. In addition to her mother, Carolyn Ross and siblings, Edward Murray, Audra Murray and Wardell Sherman III and a host of other cherished family members and friends.

Your messages, prayers, and acts of kindness have touched our hearts deeply. Through this unwavering and collective support, we know that we are not alone in our grief. Even in grief, we will continue to celebrate the zealous and extraordinary life of Carolyn, always and forever.
