

Cobert E. Price Jr.

April 14, 1954 - June 28, 2024

Cobert Eugene Price Jr. affectionately known as Doc and Jr. to some, was born on April 14th, 1954 to Clara May Price and the late Cobert E. Price Sr.

Cobert was raised in Chester, Pennsylvania, and educated within the Chester School system, graduating from Chester High School in 1972. Cobert joined the Airforce soon after and worked as a Psychiatric Clinic Specialist, eventually leaving with an Honorable discharge. Being the determined person he was, he continued to be educated in the medical field, later attending Hershey Medical College and earning a degree in Physician Studies.

Cobert moved to New York City in the mid-1980's, which became his new place to call home.

There, he worked as a Physician Assistant, in which he took great pride.

Everyone knew when Cobert entered a room. Known for being fun, energetic and outgoing, he was truly the life of any party. His personality was infectious and he left a lasting impression on whomever he encountered. He had a love for all Philadelphia sports teams and because of his love for sharp attire, he would often be seen in nice dress clothes and hats. To know him was to absolutely love him.

Cobert accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior before he departed us here on earth after being ill on June 28th, 2024.

Cobert leaves to cherish his memories: His mother, Clara Price. 6 children; Keya Thornton, Tamara Price, Tanisha Price, Cobra Price, Najah Williams-Price and Cobert C. “ Our last embrace was at the 50th Reunion for the Class of 1972. As Cobert's teacher/friend we shared memories of those wonderful days at CHS and I seized the opportunity to thank him for the leadership role he played in Student Government. The poem that I read that night entitled, "Connectedness" was especially inspired by dynamic students like Cobert who truly made a positive difference in the lives of others. I leave you with this closing stanza:

*"Some cyclic setup propels our journey in dizzying speeds t'il now we stand as one;
seeking an endless grace and giving thanks for in that space, we managed to connect."*

Rest in peace Brother Cobert! In Sympathy, Irma Jackson-Mason
