

Daniel Webster Lawson III

April 2, 1973 - October 20, 2019

Daniel Webster Lawson, III, was born on April 2, 1973, to the late Daniel W. Lawson, Jr. and LouJean Lawson in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and departed this life peacefully at home on October 20, 2019. Danny, aka Dan or DL, as he was affectionately known by family and friends was a graduate of Chester High School Class of 1991. Danny attended Delaware State University and Philadelphia School of Arts graduating with an associate degree in Culinary in 2012. Danny also worked for Comcast Cable until 2017.

Danny was introduced to the Lord as a young child and became a member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Linwood, Pennsylvania. He was also a member of the Jr. Usher board. Danny was active in school and sports. Danny played basketball for Chester Bidy Little League and football for Chester High School. Danny was part of the 1990-91 Del-Val League Championship for the Chester High Clippers. In 2019, Danny was inducted into the Chester High School Athletic Hall of Fame. Danny loved to play basketball on Sundays with his family and friends and then relax afterwards at Gins Bar. Danny also loved to cook, play cards, and entertain for everyone at family gatherings. Danny's love of football came from his father, his father introduced him to his favorite team the Washington Redskins. Danny would attend a game every year with family and friends. Danny was a gentle giant and had a lovable soul, big hear, and meek spirit. On May 30, 2010, Danny married Keyara Watkins and together they were raising five beautiful children: Correll, Donovan, Mikayla,

Jada, and Lil Danny.

Danny is preceded in death by his father, Daniel W. Lawson, Jr., and his grandmother, Lucy Peterson.
