

Diane Harding

May 29, 1952 - February 25, 2025

Diane Harding A beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, teacher, and friend. Her life departed on February 25, 2025. She was always helpful, caring, and constructive to make everything and everyone around felt loved.

She was born May 29, 1952, in Ottoman Virginia to the late Dorothy Smith. She was raised in Chester pa. Graduating from Chester High School class of 1970. Becoming a teacher was a lifelong dream. Her warm hearted that she had her whole life inspired others. She was a good mentor in helping students strive to become their best.

It was obvious why on November 24, 1972, her husband Nathaniel Harding Sr wanted to marry her. Together they built a beautiful family of their own two children a son the late Nathaniel Harding jr. and daughter survived Keisha Harding their home was always filled with love, respect, and happiness. If anyone was in the time of need they took no time in helping any and everyone.

She will be truly missed by all. now may she rest in peace and be reunited with the love of her life so they could be together again.
