“ My deepest sympathy to the Family of Dianna L Smith. She was a neighbor and friend for over twenty years. I will miss her smile and caring nature. Remember loved ones are at peace and in better place. AN OLD INDIAN POEM: "Do not stand at my grave and weep. I am not there, I do no sleep, I am a thousand winds that blow; I am diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain; I am the gentle autumun's rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush. Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft star that shines at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry. I am not there; I did not die." God bless, Mailion, Lawrence and the Smith and Brice family.

“ Dianna and I were cross-the-parking-lot neighbors. She was always an optimistic, friendly, bright person. I missed her when she moved. I miss her now, and wish her happiness on the journey. My thoughts are with her family; it is so hard to be the ones left behind.
