

Dolores L. Davis

January 19, 1934 - March 5, 2024

Known as Suede or Sinny by her family was born in Chester, PA to the late Ralph Moore & Lilly Bell Tucker Moore. Dolores was one of 6 children and was the oldest.

Dolores was educated at Chester Upland School District. In the early years she worked doing domestic work. In the later years she worked at Widener University and Rosemont College Villanova. She enjoyed being with family, listening to music, having an ice-cold beer with her sisters and dancing with her grandchildren. She loved to laugh and have fun with her family, she had a great big heart and would do anything for family!

She was preceded in death by Ralph Moore, Alfonso Moore, Edwin Piggy Moore, Lilly Bell, Lucas Moore and Brenda Mary Moore.

Thank You God for the gift of the Dolores

“ To my beautiful grandmother. Thank you for always making a way for me to see my dad and get to know my family in Philadelphia. You had a smile that was smile and laugh that was unforgettable. The next time, I come to visit it's going to feel so different without you being there. I love you with my all my heart and soul. Your 1st granddaughter from Florida (in your voice) Danielle Alicia Davis ! 😊
