

Edmond R. Phillips

April 20, 1939 - March 27, 2021

Remembering The Life & Legacy of Edmond R. Phillips

Edmond was Educated in the Public School System-John Barry Elementary School, Sarah Jr. High School, Dobbins Vocational Tech School and graduated from West Philadelphia High School.

As a young teenager Edmond was employed at Penn Fruit Supermarket. Later as a young man, he worked at Curtis Publishing where his Father Calvin was also employed. He then went on to work for Boeing-Vertal as a Pattern Maker.

Edmond also graduated from Temple university with a Masters and Bachelors. He taught school for 35yrs as a History and Auto Mechanics Teacher. He was one of the strongest hardworking men of his time, extremely loved & respected by all student attendees. Edmond could talk to you in just about any History subject and could tell you how to fix a car from top to bottom. In the height of it all Edmond always kept a new Cadillac, convertible or hard top shinning like the first day he bought it.

Edmond gracefully retired years later from the Philadelphia School District where he joyfully continued to advise everyone with his knowledge on history and auto mechanics.

Edmond was and will remain the patriarch and strength for his family. He was a divine Son, Brother, Father, Uncle and Beloved Husband.
