

Emeline P. Fluellen

November 10, 1929 - January 31, 2026

Emeline Paige (Little) Fluellen was the sixth child of the late Ralph E Little and Julia E Little. She was born on November 10, 1929, in Upland, Pennsylvania. She grew up alongside her beloved sisters Alice (Little) Tabron, Clarice (Little) Reynolds, brothers Ralph E Little, Jr. William A Little and Frank B. Little, who preceded her in death.

Her family moved to the Elmwood section of Philadelphia, Pa when she was a very young child. She resided in Twin Oaks Farms, Upper Chichester Township for the past fifty plus years. Emeline received her elementary and high school education in the Philadelphia Public School System. She later attended Alpha Business School and Widener University, Chester, PA. Emeline accepted Christ at age 16 and was baptized at Calvary Baptist Church, Elmwood, PA. She was an employee of the U.S. Federal Government for 33 years. She retired from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Civil Rights, Philadelphia, PA, as an Equal Opportunity Specialist. Later she was employed by Our Lady of Angels Covent, Aston, PA as a part time receptionist.

She married the late William B. Fluellen, Sr, April 4, 1966, gaining three dearly beloved stepchildren, Shirley Womack, the late Denise Hardy and the late William B Fluellen, Jr. She and (Flu) were devoted to each other and were happily married for 33 years. Shortly after their marriage Emeline joined St. Daniels United Methodist Church, Chester PA where she remained an active member.

Emeline and Flu enjoyed an active social life until he suffered a prolonged illness. They were members of the The Kupples Klub of Philadelphia for over 25 years. She was a member of the Y's Minettes when Flu was an active member of the Yes Men of Chester.

She was a member and former vice president of St. Daniels United Methodist Women; a member and former treasurer of the Senior Ushers; former Sunday School Teacher; member of Class #10, member of St. Daniel's Senior, former member of the Twin Oaks Farms Civic Association. She was an avid bowler until er late eighties.

Emeline leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories with stepdaughter, Shirley Womack (William); nieces Marie Jones (James); Leslie Little; nephews Frank Little (LaTisha), Ralph Little (Patricia) two step granddaughters Vanessa Rigaud & Taneshia Hardy-Fluellen, step grandson David Womack, son-in-law Larry Hardy; half-sister Lydia Fitzgerald, close friend Aneeta Fountaine, and a host of other relatives and friends.
