

Ethel Mae Crews

August 14, 1934 - June 4, 2019

Ethel M. Crews (affectionately called Freenie or Poppy) was born August 14, 1934 to the late Coretta M. Brown and James Stinson. Ethel was born and raised in Chester, PA and educated in the Chester School District.

Ethel worked at Weinberg's Department Store from the time she was in high school until its closing in 1975. She then proceeded to work at Kmart Department Store in Brookhaven until her retirement in 2001.

Ethel was a long-time member of St. Michael's Parish, and later a member of St. Katharine Drexel Church.

Ethel was an avid Eagles and Sixer's fan and did her best to never miss a game on television or wear her gear. From her recliner, she was an excellent coach for both teams.

Ethel was the oldest of her siblings and had buried all of them prior to her transition. To know Ethel was to know a woman that was short in stature but tall in grace and dignity. She was excellent with accounting, loved flowers, loved working in her garden, and sitting on the porch. She enjoyed watching sports, Law and Order, and solving mysteries.

Ethel is predeceased by her parents, two sisters, Esther Brown, and Mrs. Delores Pankey, and her brother, Clarence Porter Jr.

Ethel leaves to mourn her daughter, Dr. Lynnette D. Crews, Spouse, Lawrence A. Crews, grandson, Lawrence A. Crews II, Great Grand Children, Labron Crews, Lamyia Crews, LaSean Crews and Lanier Crews, Nieces, Nephews, 3 Brother-in Laws, 2 Sister- in Laws, and a Special Niece, Mrs.

Francine Lawrence.

She also leaves to mourn her special four-legged family members, Bentley and Bella.
