

Francis Lamont Nottage

April 9, 1962 - August 31, 2024

Lamont was born April 9, 1962, to the late Rudolph and Doreene P. Nottage Kennedy. He was called home to join his ancestors on August 31, 2024.

Lamont was also preceded in death by his parent John R. Kennedy, his sister Vivian D. Nottage, his brother Robert Kennedy, as well as both sets of grandparents.

Lamont attended Chester High School, graduating in 1981. He went on to follow his culinary aspirations by obtaining his Associates Degree in Culinary Arts in 1983 from RETS Business School. Lamont was truly passionate about the food service industry and held a wide variety of positions over a career that spanned over four decades, ranging from catering services to restaurant management. He was especially proud of providing catering services to various companies and organizations.

Charismatic and quick witted, Lamont was often the life of the party. He was recognized immediately at each and every event he attended and loved to dance and entertain. He could often be found on the dance floor, most likely dancing to his favorite song, "Let Me Clear my Throat" by DJ Kool. As his life settled into a more relaxed pattern, you could catch Lamont riding around with his brother Edward, more than likely on their way to attend a sporting event for his nephews, which he thoroughly enjoyed.

Lamont was united in marriage in 1993 to Linda. This union lasted over 25 years and through which their daughter Tiffany was born. Lamont also gained a son Khalil, whom he loved as his own.

Left to cherish his memory are his four children: sons Mandell Mclaughlin and Khalil (Heather) Cook, daughters Megan Williams and Tiffany Nottage; five grandchildren: London, Ava, Maya, Neveah, and Region; his brother Edward (Wachin) Kennedy; two aunts, Dennise (Terry) Townsend and Cornella Fanuiel; one uncle, Seifuddin (Michelle) Simpson; two nieces to pieces; two nephews; two great-nieces; one great nephew; and a host of loving cousins and friends.
