

Genoveva M. Martin

January 3, 1940 - July 21, 2024

Genoveva M Martin was born January 3, 1940, in Cebu Philippines to her mother Consorcia Dela Cerna. She resided in the Philippines where she gave birth to two sons John and Albert Macalit.

From there, she accepted a position abroad in Iran in 1975 upon working in Iran she met and married Herman L Martin on September 27, 1977. In May 1979 they relocated to Chester, PA and she gave birth to her youngest son Herman Nicely III.

Gennie or Jenny, as referred to by everyone who knew her, worked for the majority of her life as a known seamstress for Department of Defense for over 20 years upon retiring from the government, she continued being a seamstress for David's bridal. In her spare time, she enjoyed eating crabs and relaxing at home. She was a kindhearted and down-to-earth person who loved any outdoor activity, especially if they were eating crabs. Her other hobbies include singing, sewing, martial arts, dancing, cooking, gardening, and spending time with family and friends.

Her most favorite thing to do was shopping. Gennie's favorite moment was when her granddaughter Gianna Maree Nicely was born on November 27, 2007. She deemed her princess, Gianna.

Gennie was predeceased by her mom Consorcia dela Cerna, her brother Martin dela Cerna, and her husband of 30 years Herman L Martin Jr. She leaves to cherish her memories, her children, John, Albert, Herman, daughter-in-law SaShaun Nicely, sister Frances Mingus, niece Johanna Paler, five grandchildren, one great grandchild, and a host of cousins and family friends.
