

H D "Tex" Milsap

December 10, 1929 - January 23, 2022

H.D. "Tex" Milsap was born December 10, 1929 in Bay Springs, Mississippi to the late Holloway Milsap and Elsie (Payton) Milsap. The Lord called him home to eternal rest on January 23, 2022.

Tex was from a large family of 7 brothers and 2 sisters. At an early age he had to stop school in order to work and help support his family. That early work ethic traveled with him throughout his life. He traveled north to Philadelphia and eventually to Chester, PA, where he joined in matrimony with Carol Ann (Davis) Milsap on March 1, 1975. From this union two children were born.

Tex was employed by the Local 413, working construction for the majority of his career. Outside of work, he was known for always doing odd jobs for anyone who requested his talent. He tended to a garden where he grew vegetables and blessed many members of the community with each harvest. If you happen to be a fan of shooting pool, then you HAD to know Tex! An avid pool player, Tex would take you on, beat you, and send you on your way! In addition to pool, Tex was a magician like no other. If you gave him a moment, you were bound to be the subject of one of his many magic tricks.

Faith was important to Tex. He was a member of Calvary Baptist church where he attended the early service faithfully until his health prohibited him. He was also a proud member of the Masons, Linwood Lodge #87. Above all,

Tex enjoyed spending time with his family and many friends. Tex is preceded in death by his daughter, Charlene Zacharay.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his loving wife of 46 years, Carol Milsap, his children, Jamar Milsap, Tamika Milsap, Glenda Boynton (John), and Charles Douglas Milsap; his stepchildren, Lisa Graham (Rutherford), and Juan Benz (Sonia), grandchildren, Fatima Singleton, Martinique Graham, Gabriel Graham, Keiasia Kennard, Miya Milsap, and 4 additional grandchildren in Georgia, three siblings, Christine Martin, Tommy Milsap (Judy), and Robert Leonard Milsap (Gertrude), and a host of other relatives and friends.
