

James S. Cyler

October 25, 1952 - October 18, 2022

James Sylvester Cyler, (aka West) was born on October 25, 1952, in Chester, PA to the late George and Viola Cyler both deceased.

West ventured into the Army very young and eventually decided it was not for him and decided to come back home to take care of some family obligations. He dodged that bullet with the help of his sister. He was so bright and gifted he could repair cars, build basically whatever you needed and complete home repairs but one thing he could not do was tidy up his mess. He would say get the broom and sweep the mess. He had a mild mannerism and a welcoming personality everyone liked him with that dimpled smile. He would have you laughing all the time and we could never determine if he wasn't feeling well because he would not complain.

He also was a diehard Eagles fan always sporting around his hat and tee shirt, you would also see him walking around with his boombox not bothering anyone grooving. He would walk in any weather to come run errands for his sister Vera. He would visit the church and pick up food and share with folks who needed it.

West leaves to cherish in his memory, his sisters Vera Cyler and Lavenia Cobb (Lucy), and brother –in-law Roy Cobb; one son Sylvester Cyler (Mann), and two daughters Sonja Harris and Desiree Crews and husband Ronald, grandchildren and great grands: Daniel Harris, Robert Strickland, Rashad Cyler, Talia Cyler, Keane Cyler, Jarie Hill, Dayshia Cyler and Dayvon Cyler and three nieces Michell Cyler, Kiah Cobb and Ramona Cyler and his special friends/sisters Charmaine Cephas and Elaine Jones and many cousins, loved ones and friends. Brothers deceased: John Cyler and George Cyler (Bopeep).
