JAMES EDWARD HARRIS

James Edward Harris, affectionately known as “Sonny” was born January 5th, 1940 to the late Herman and Thelma Harris. As a child, he attended Temple Baptist Church, including Sunday School, at 6th and Parker Streets in Chester. It was at Temple Baptist that he accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. Sonny was educated in the Chester School District, graduating in 1958. Upon graduating he enlisted in the United States Army and served during the Vietnam Conflict. He then became employed at the Scott Paper Company for approximately 26 years. Upon retiring from Scott Paper he went to work at Winners Company at the Philadelphia Airport until his health began to fail. During Sonny’s illness he never complained.

One of Sonny’s favorite hobbies was Chess. He was an avid chess player. His next love was belonging to the Quiet Storm Karate Club, under the instruction of ‘Master Rick Berry’. Sonny was also a diehard Eagles fan.

Sonny loved his family, children, and grandchildren. He leaves to cherish his memory one daughter, Robin Gordy Warner, one son, James Edward Gordy (Antoinette); two stepchildren, Leonard Gordy and Dr. Brenda Gordy McCready (Perium); 9 grandchildren: Lamar Gordy, Jaquanna Gordy Jacobs (Thomas), Lariah Warner Lolley (John), Laniya Warner, James Gordy Jr., Tamir Chambers, Kenny Gordy (Tujuana), Perium McCready II (Britney), Jared McCready, and 5 great grandchildren: Adonis Gordy, NaZuri Bowman, Tamir Chambers Jr., Myles Gordy, and Jordan Gordy.
