The Beautiful Life of Janet Stewart Johnson

Janet Stewart Johnson was born September 10, 1948, in Birmingham, Alabama to Johnnie and Deanner Stewart. Janet, affectionately known as “Jeanette” to family and friends, was blessed to be a part of a family with six sisters and one brother.

The family relocated from Birmingham, Alabama to Chester, Pennsylvania where they lived for a few years before making Twin Oaks, Pennsylvania their permanent home. While living in Twin Oaks Jeanette attended the Chichester School District. As the Stewarts spread their wings in Twin Oaks, Jeanette met the love of her life Clarence “Boo” Johnson. The couple wed on September 4th, 1965. From this union, five children were born.

Jeanette was employed by Ship and Shore, The Franklin Mint, and Fair Acres Geriatric Center. She was a passionate long-time member of Mount Pleasant Baptist Church. The steady guidance of the church was important to Jeanette and she made sure her kids saw its importance as well. Jeanette took great pride in her family. Janet loved her family deeply and nothing was more important to her. She lived for her family and friends. Jeanette loved music and dancing. She was a strong woman with a big heart who possessed that rare quality of keeping a smile on her face in all she did.
