

Jennifer L. Collins

July 7, 1961 - August 26, 2025

Jennifer Lynne Collins transitioned peacefully unto THE LORD on Tuesday, August 26, 2025. She passed away at Temple University Hospital surrounded by her loving family.

Jennifer was born in Steelton, Pennsylvania on July 7, 1961, to the late Ozella Lee Adams and the late George Phillip Arter.

Those left to cherish her memory includes her sisters; Sandra McCain, Rita Jackson, and Trina Arter. Her brothers George Arter III and Rodney Adams (all from Harrisburg, PA). In addition, are her loving children Terence Earl Collins Jr., Taryn Ebony Collins, and Tiffany L. Winfield-Welborn. Also, her grandchildren Hannah Judie Collins (whom she called "the little grill"), Malachi Welborn, and Jordan Welborn. Furthermore, her Pastor and best friend Apostle Judie Hall (whom she loved very much). A host of nieces and nephews; and her brother in Christ Terry P. Hughes.

Jennifer was a very driven person who worked hard to provide for her family. She graduated from Steelton-Highspire High School in Steelton, Pa. She worked many jobs in her lifetime. Growing up, she worked at Reese's Factory, she studied Mortuary Science in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, she was a correctional officer, a hairdresser and much more. Above all, she was best known for her skills in phlebotomy. She retired being known as the "top performing phlebotomist"

"Jenny Bee" as she was affectionally called by her Pastor, was a very generous and giving person. She was an active member of Apostle Judie Hall Ministries. She sang on the gospel choir known as "The Glory Choir".

Lastly, she was well known for her saying "Whatever God Says" Jennifer will be remembered for her humble and lowly heart. She has touched many individuals lives by her encouraging spirit.

She will be greatly missed!

“ I was saddened to hear of the passing of Jennifer. My condolences to Tiffany, Lil'Terence, Taryn, family and friends. Keeping everyone in my prayers.

Jennifer was a very kind, caring, thoughtful and loving person. She was a hard worker at Reese's. She would make me the best tuna fish and fried chicken when we were both pregnant; she was pregnant with Lil'Terence and I was pregnant with Lil'Robert. Our family and I will always love Jennifer, Tiffany, Lil'Terence and Taryn. That will never change. I will always cherish all of the great memories.

Rest In Heavenly Peace Jennifer. You are loved and will be missed by many.
