Jermel aka Jaylamay, aka Skilly went to Chester High School where he graduated class of 1996. He went on to become a surgical technician. He graduated top of his class at C.H.I Institute class of 2000 with a degree.

Jermel went to travel as a traveling technician. He went to places like Boston, Maryland, North Carolina, Detroit, etc., Jermel finally settled with his work family at Christian Care hospital Wilmington, Delaware, where he was loved and admire for his friendships, and encouragement to others and for skills as a surgical tech. Hint: then Nick name Skilly.

Jermel was such a fun person to be around. He loved music and he loved to dance. He also loved writing. He wrote down everything that was on his mind. He had so many books filled with his expression on all kinds of subjects. He wrote raps, poems, and spoken words. He was a big dreamer. He had so many ideas for startup businesses. He was a protector standing up to Bullies who bullied his friends and family even strangers.

Jermel was a Big fan of playing and watching sports. Basketball (Sixers) and of course Football (EAGLES) hint: The program... once he was in front of the TV to watch the game that was it. Call it a day.

Jermel will be missed. We loved him through life and through death to paradise in perfect conditions Where we all can see him again.

Luke 20:38

He is a God, not of the dead, but of the living, for they are all living to him.

Revolutions 21:3,4

With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them

And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."
