Obituary for Juan E. Rodriguez

Juan E. Rodriguez, 67, a long-term resident of Chester PA, passed away peacefully after a long battle of lung cancer and a heart condition on Saturday March 8, 2025, at his home. Juan was born on October 22, 1958, in Juana Diaz Puerto Rico.

Early Life & Family

Juan moved to Pennsylvania in the late 70's from Brooklyn NY, to start a new life with his wife Joy Andino

Juan loved his family, enjoyed family time and making great memories. His smile would light up a room. He was always eager to help someone especially when it came to any type of home improvements, and/or car troubles, he was definitely your "go to guy". Always happy and smiling, even when he was upset, he found a way to laugh about the situation.

Growing up in NY he enjoyed going to Coney Island with his boom box on his shoulders, playing handball, going to the public pools, making fishnets with his dad, going fishing and playing baseball with his brothers. He also built a piragua cart (water ice truck) with his father and brothers and would go to the street corners of Brooklyn and sell the best piraguas ever!

Career

Juan was a carpenter, a trade he followed after his father

Interest and Hobbies

Juan's passion was his handy work, listening to his Spanish music, dancing, playing pool, watching his Bruce Lee karate movies, and going fishing

Personal Qualities

Juan was a jokester, love saying his funny jokes and laughed at his own jokes funny or not and loved doing pranks on his family. Juan's hugs, smile, and dancing is one of his qualities that will be missed dearly, His smile would light up a football field.
