Life Story of Thee Kathy Morgan

Kathleen Marsha Morgan Davis was born August 1, 1958 to the late Robert and Eva Morgan in Chester, PA. She was the 9th of 13 children from this union. She was preceded in death by her five brothers, Gregory Atkinson, Robert W., James, Robert, and Ronald Morgan, and her three sisters, Wanda Morgan, Glenda Morgan Green, and Paula Morgan Hooks.

Kathy, as she was so affectionately called, was educated in the Chester Public School District. Kathy started her entrepreneurship at an early age selling clothes, glasses, oils, and whatever she thought people would like.

Kathy loved singing, shopping, and Diva-lyzing herself with sparkles and diamonds, on her nails, eyebrows, and any other place she thought looked cute . . . even her teeth. Kathy was a free spirit and would do whatever she could to put a smile on your face. If you ever had the chance to be in Kathy's presence, you would never forget her. Kathy loved the Lord, and she never stopped trying to get right with Him.

Kathy's earthly joy was spending time with her children and grandchildren whenever possible.

Kathy leave to cherish her memory; her four children, Fatin Davis, Saiyda Muhammad, Hadia Muhammed, and Eli Muhammed; four grandchildren, Angel, Andrew, and Alex Davis-Calderon, and Saraya Muhammad; three brothers, William (Garnett), Frank, and Roger Morgan; eleven sisters, Laura Robinson, Joyce Atkinson, Brenda Dawson, Gloria Morgan, Robin Morgan, Diane Carter, Roberta Pierce, Bernadette Porter, BettyAnn Shipman, Fay and Wanda Morgan; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

The family of Kathleen Marsha Morgan Davis sorrowfully and humbly submits to the will of God.
