Lenora Alice Daniels, Loving, Caring and A Jazzy Lady. Who was adored by family & friends. Was born July 29, 1950, to the late Marion L. Rothwell and Harvey Mc Cormick in Chester P.a. Lenora was the middle child of five children preceded in death Sister Rosa Adams and brother Milton Adams and was Widowed to the late Robert Daniels. Lenora was Educated in the Catholic School system.

Lenora was an Accomplished Barmaid she was employed at Mr. Silk's Bar in Philadelphia P.a. and Bennie's Tavern, Town Bar in Chester p.a. just to name a few. A Loving Mother of two, Dana Thomas Daniels and Tiffany Boyton. Beloved Life time Partner Carl Fitzgerald, Grandmother of 5 known as "Peaches" and Great-Grandmother of 16. Besides loving raising her children and helping with the grandchildren her Greatest Joy was being dedicated to the Lord she truly was a child of GOD.

GOD called Lenora Home leaving behind Cherishing memories to her two Children, Beloved lifetime Partner, In-Laws, Grandchildren and a Host of Great Grand Children, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins and Special Friends. Beloved Partner Carl W. Fitzgerald, Dana T. Daniels (Wendy), Tiffany Boyton (Shealynn Boyton), Darius L. Daniels, Dana Daniels Jr., Joshua Daniels, Chanel Daniels, Reese Daniels and 16 great grandchildren.

Lenora loved cooking and Entertaining Family and Friends. Especially enjoying time with the great grandchildren and grandchildren. Along with Traveling to different states and cruising, loved the jazzy classiness that life had to offer. She also was known for classy unique style of dress. She will be deeply missed and never forgotten.

For we are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.
