

Levi Benjamin MacDonald

February 4, 1946 - May 27, 2021

Levi Benjamin MacDonald was born on February 4, 1946 in Paterson, NJ to Benjamin Keeling and Mary MacDonald, both of whom have preceded him in death. He was the oldest of seven children.

Levi graduated from Chester High School in 1964. He then enlisted in the United States Army on December 22, 1965, during the Vietnam War as an Electrical Maintenance Specialist. He was stationed in Italy and Fort Bliss, Texas. During his enlistment, he served honorably achieving the rank of Specialist 4th Class and awarded the National Defense Service Medal and a Sharpshooter's Rifle Badge.

Levi had three children with his former spouse, Vastine MacDonald. They had a daughter, Racquel Vastine MacDonald-Alexandre, and two sons, Levi Benjamin MacDonald II, and Brinton Idris MacDonald, whom preceded him in death. Levi also has a daughter, Levita MacDonald.

Levi was a family man, and loved to bring the family together for trips to the amusement park and he loved to ride the roller coasters. He was a machinist by trade and was skilled and able to repair vehicles, as well as build and repair around the home. He also built the family business, Vastine's of Germantown. He was a very jovial person, always had a warm smile and was full of laughter.

Levi leaves to mourn: a daughter, Racquel, a son-in-law Darwin and their two children, Maya and Darwin Jr., a son Levi II, the children of his son Brinton, Imani, Mekhi, and Brinton, and he leaves a daughter, Levita MacDonald. He also leaves his siblings and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
