

Levoliour McCarthy

February 1, 1941 - November 26, 2024

Levoliour McCarthy was born on the 1st day of February in Thomson Georgia to the late Tom Collins and Lessie (Taylor) Collins. She was the oldest of six children to this union. Levoliour transitioned to be with her mom and dad and 3 brothers on Tuesday November 26, 2024, at home with her daughter by her side.

Levoliour received her education from the public schools of Delaware County, Sharon Hill High School. Levoliour met her late deceased husband Layton Eugene McCarthy from Chester, Pa. and married on November 24, 1962 and on April 4, 1969, she was blessed with her Precious daughter Stacy. Little did Levoliour know she would be raising her daughter by herself. June 7, 1969 her husband Layton was in a fatal car accident. Levoliour's mother and father were helping to watch her Precious Stacy, so she was able to work.

Levoliour was a Senior Accountant Analysis for Cigna, INA for the Life Insurance Department where she was employed for 38 years before retiring. Levoliour was bored sitting at home, so she went back to work at Fidelity Bank, the name changed to First Union and then Wells Fargo Bank where she then retired again after 20 odd years.

Levoliour was the most sweetest and loyal person God created, to know her was to Love her. Before Levoliour had her own Precious Stacy she was spreading her love and attention to her nephew and niece, Al and Kim.

Levoliour was dedicated and devoted to her church, First A.M.E., of Darby Township Pennsylvania, Levoliour Loved the Lord, Loved her church and church Family where she was a Trustee who handle responsibility of the finances and attended meetings being the representative for First A,M.E. for the Brotherhood Breakfast and making sure that the breakfast was the Best around.

Levoliour was predeceased by her husband, Layton McCarthy and her parents, Tom and Lessie Collins, her brothers Eddie Collins. Warren Collins, and Bernard Collins.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her Precious daughter Stacy and Todd and her Special Friend Bill and her Beautiful Sisters Patsie Collins and Claire Johnson and Favorite sister in laws Ernestine Collins and Ginny McCarthy and the Best brother in laws Booker Johnson and Frankie McCarthy. The Special Love of her Life Perry, Brandon and Kandis and her extra daughter/niece Kim and amazing nieces and nephews and great, great-great and great -great -great nieces and nephews and her favorite cousins (you know who you are 😊 wink wink).

“When I think of my Aunt Levoliour, I think of love, strength, and laughter. She wasn't just my aunt—she raised me like a son. In many ways, she was a second mother to me, right alongside my own mom and dear Mama Lessie. She had this way of making everyone feel like they were the center of her world, even though she carried so much on her own shoulders.

Levo was a remarkable woman. She was a single mother who gave everything she had to her Precious, and she made it look like a labor of love---if you know Stacy, you know that was not an easy task. She worked tirelessly to ensure Stacy had all she needed, but she also extended that same devotion to me and my sister.

What made Aunt Vo special wasn't just her strength; it was her warmth. Her smile could brighten any room. She had this way of turning ordinary moments into memories you carried with you forever. Like the time she tried to tackle Kim like a football player, Kim leaped right over her...I never laughed so hard in my life!

She also taught me life's simple joys. She taught me how to laugh at myself when I was being stupid at 16, to cherish the people who care for you, and to stand strong even when life gets tough. She had this way of finding the silver lining in any cloud, and she made sure everyone else could see it too. I sure did!

Her life was full of love, not just for her family but for everyone she met. Whether it was through her words, her deeds, or her infectious spirit, Aunt Vo left an imprint on every heart she touched.

I don't mourn her passing as much as I celebrate her life. She lived a good, full life, one that taught me the meaning of resilience and unconditional love. And while I miss her terribly, her legacy lives on in me. She is a major part of who I grew up to be!

So, let's remember her not with sadness but with gratitude—for her love, her strength, and the joy she brought into our lives. Thank you,

Levolour, for everything you gave me. You'll always be with me, in my heart and memory.

“ Dear Philly family, especially to my cousin Stacy. Sending you love and prayers from your cousins in Cleveland. I have so many fond memories of your mom and my visits to Aunt Lessie. Leviloura was a sweet and kind person, who loved her family. She will be missed. But now she's at her eternal home with family. Take your rest cousin. Love you Delores
