

Lewis C. Strand Sr.

July 4, 1942 - October 20, 2024

Lewis C. Strand Sr passed away on October 20th 2024. Affectionally known as “Louie” by his beloved. Lewis Sr. was born on July 4th 1942 in Chester, Pennsylvania, to the late Harry and Pastor Mamie E. Strand.

Legacy:

He attended the Chester Public School District and went on to work a number of jobs before attending a trade school to be a machinist. He would later find gainful employment with South Co. Inc for 30 years and retiring at the age of 58.

Christ and Family:

Through his early years Lewis accepted Christ and attended First Pentecostal Holy Church in Chester, PA. Lew would later attend Little Mighty Temple of Faith and served as a Deacon. It was here with this body of believers Lewis found his bride-to-be Estella Marie Ricketts. From that union born Lewis Coven Jr.

Through the years Lewis attended Living Hope Worship Center and would leave this life serving at Word of Truth Fellowship.

Lewis was known for his strong hand to serve others as Romans 12:7 encourages. In addition, He was known as a man of prayer. Lewis had the gift to help and serve those he encountered. He was a big fan of boxing matches and watching Western movies and TV shows. He loved sports and the team who was winning at the moment.

Lewis Sr. is preceded in death by his first son Kevin Tillery, Father (Harry), Mother (Mamie); Harvey, Nathaniel & Bobby (brothers) Alice (sister).

Lewis Sr. leaves to cherish his memory, lovely wife of 50 years Estella M. Strand, One son Lewis Jr. daughter in-law (Jeanette), 3 grandchildren from Lewis Jr. and Jeanette; Ethan J. Strand, Tytus A. Strand and Amara-Melody Enid Strand. One brother Harold Strand. Ten grandchildren from Kevin Tillery and 5 special nieces Kim, Karen, Kathy, Keyaie and Kelicia more nieces and nephews and friends.
