“ Lisa was an amazing woman. What a colleague to work with. She was always excited about participating in my lottery club. All she wanted to do was hit it big and retire and take care of her family. Lisa would always say Matt what are you having for lunch today? We would joke, laughing and talk. It's not gonna be the same when I walk by her cubicle and I don't see her.

Timothy and Timothy, you lost a wife and a mother. All of us police officers gained a guardian angel. She will be flying by us and watching over us as we go through our daily routines. Thank you for watching over us Lisa and your family may you rest in peace your friend Matt

“ I will never forget when Lisa I used to hangout together in Philly, during our younger years, she was always so laid back, never letting anything fluster her. That's what I'll miss most about her is her smooth style, we didn't talk much as we grew up, but, we were always good friends! Sending condolences to my friend Rick, her son Tim and Mr and Mrs. Blake. “WEEPING MAY ENDURE FIR A NIGHT, BUT JIOY COMETH IN THE MORNING!”
