

Louise Elizabeth Anderson

March 25, 1927 - October 19, 2019

Louise was affectionately called Weezie by many friends. Her daughter would playfully also call her Weezie.

Louise attended the Chester Public Schools. She lived in Chester her entire life. She would occasionally visit her loveable Aunt Dorothy who lived in Princess Anne, Maryland.

Louise loved to watch the old shows on television, especially the westerns. Working on puzzles was another activity she enjoyed.

Louise retired from the Delaware County Memorial Hospital.

Let us not forget how much she loved her church, St. Peter's UAME, and serving the Lord in her faithful service as a senior usher.

Louise was predeceased by brothers Elwood and Irvin Carroll; Donald and Earl Goldsborough, Sr.; sister, Madeline Council (Goldsborough).

Louise leaves to cherish her fond memories, daughter Carole of Lithonia, GA; a sister Carolyn Bradwell of Lansdowne, PA. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews, as well as a host of cousins and dear friends.
