

Marie V. Randall

June 20, 1947 - February 14, 2025

Marie V. Randall was born on June 20, 1947, in Chester, Pennsylvania to the late Cornelius Winters and Betty Marshall Winters. She departed this life to unite with her heavenly father on February 14, 2025. Marie, affectionately known as Dolly, attended Chester public schools and graduated from Chester High School in 1964.

The early influence of her grandmothers and aunts instilled a sense of care and compassion for people. Her desire to help others led to a lifelong career in nursing. She worked as a private duty nurse and for various nursing facilities, including Bishop Nursing Home, Harlee Manor, Wallingford Nursing Home, and Brinton Manor.

Marie accepted the Lord at an early age as a member of Murphy AME Church in Chester, PA. She later became a member of Siloam UMC and offered her vocal talent to the Women in White. She was a recent member of St. John AUMP Church, where she served as an usher and choir member. Marie loved the Lord and demonstrated the love of Christ through selfless acts of generosity and kindness.

Marie was an only child but raised with her three cousins: Sandra Trotter, Joyce Swain, and Ann Bratcher. Her greatest joy was her son, Wilson. She held him close to her heart and showered him with unconditional love. As a grandmother, her love transcended to her grandchildren Antone, Chase, and Morgan.

Marie lived a life full of a love, light, and laughter. She was known for her boisterous laugh and outspoken nature. To truly know her was to love her. She enjoyed hosting family and friends, attending church, traveling, watching her favorite shows, caring for her cats, and spending time at the Salvation Army.

Marie was preceded in death by her father, Cornelius Winters; mother, Betty Marshall Winters; grandmothers, Mary Winters and Marie Brooks; close aunts, Sarah Hollis and Mamie Viola Edwards; and grandson, Antone Green.

She leaves to cherish her memory: son Wilson Winters (Danielle) of Middletown, Delaware; grandson Chase Winters; granddaughter Morgan Winters; loving friends Diane Kidd, Charlene Carter, and Barbara Goll; special cousin Roslynn Stewart; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ *I enjoyed visiting with her during her stay at Wallingford. She was a roommate to my sister and our friendship grew from there. I would visit weekly sometimes twice a week if she requested a special treat. She would keep you laughing and her voice was amazing. She's truly missed

“ To the Family: We celebrate the life of Marie Randall affectionately called "Dollie". She became our longtime neighbor sometime following the passing of her grandmother, the late Marie Brooks, our former neighborhood block captain. Dolly is remembered as a joyful person, full of life with a very distinctive laugh! Over the years, her love and laughter could be felt and heard whether sitting on her porch, shopping at the store, chatting over a meal at the local diner, riding the bus or train to work, or on her way to church. We also share many fond memories of her son Wilson as a youngster playing with the kids on the block. Dollie is greatly missed! In Christ. Lovingly, Walnut Street Neighbors, Rev. Burton, Sr. and Rev. Dr. Pam

“ There was rarely ever a time when I saw Miss Marie that she didn't greet me with a big smile, a warm hug and a kiss. Her light shined for the world to see and her personality could change the atmosphere of a room. She will be deeply missed. Gone for now but never forgotten until we meet again. Always loved
