

Patricia M. Bivens

March 17, 1940 - December 25, 2021

Patricia Bivens 81 of Chester PA passed on December 25, 2021, at Riddle Hospital. Patricia was called home to be with the LORD.

Patricia attended the Chester Upland School District. Her passion for taking care of others led her to become a nurse, which she did for many years. She enjoyed singing, and dancing. Patricia enjoyed shopping which led to her stylish attire and opening multiple businesses such as boutiques and gift shops. During her free time, she enjoyed going to the casino to test her luck and traveling to meet new people and see new things.

Patricia attended Asbury AME Church of Chester, PA for many years and was a faithful member before taking ill where she served as usher and sang on the choir and participated in many events.

Patricia leaves to cherish her children Pamela Hutt, Derrick Bivens, Rondale Bivens, Vanessa Thomas, and sister-in-law Yvonne D. Jackson, special sister Annette Friend, her right-hand Veronica Cottman. A host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and her special caretakers Samir Henson, Demaris Jones, and Crystal Frazier.

Patricia was preceded in death by her husband Walter Thomas, Father

Charles "Hooligan" Jackson, Mother Bessie E Darling, Brother Artie P. Jackson and Grandson Romoxie W. Bivens.

Patricia was a loving and caring mother and the best grandmother a child could ask for. Patricia made sure to teach her family how to love and the importance of giving back but most of all how to stand up for themselves and go out and get everything deserved.

God saw the road was getting rough, the hills too hard to climb, so God softly whispered in Patricia ears come home sweet child of mine.
