

Patricia A. Bolds

August 24, 1953 - December 25, 2019

Patricia A. Bolds of Chester, PA went to her eternal rest early Christmas morning of 2019 after a brief illness. She leaves behind to mourn her passing: Her husband – Willie, her mother – Mary, her children – Shenequa, Kewyne (Latefah) , Zayid Sr., Bryan, Cemah, and Joy, her grandchildren, her sisters Cathy and Barbara, her brother Charles Jr., numerous friends, and other extended family members.

Patricia A. Bolds was born on August 24, 1953 in the Charleston, South Carolina. During her magnificent life journey, she owned and operated a daycare for 20+ years, served as a teacher's aide at Chester Community Charter School, volunteered within her community, and interceded for the Lord until her time of passing. She was a warrior for the church, starting with Life In Christ Ministries in Chester, PA and continuing with Victory Christian Fellowship in Newcastle, DE. During her time at Victory Christian Fellowship, she was also very active in GEMS. A group dedicated to mentoring preteens.

Patricia Bolds loved to travel, attend jazz concerts, sew, and read in her past time. She was and still is greatly loved and cherished by those who encountered her. Pat has left an incredible mark on her family and the community. She will be forever missed until we are all reunited with her in the glorious Presence of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
