Peggy Viola Jarmon Showell, a beloved mother, grandmother, and faithful servant of God, peacefully departed this life on Tuesday, April 21, 2026, at her home in Upland, Pennsylvania, at the age of 91.

Born on February 27, 1935, in Berlin, Maryland, she was the cherished daughter of the late Franklin and Ella Jarmon. She was raised with strong faith and values that guided her throughout her life. Peggy began her Christian journey at New Bethel United Methodist Church in Berlin, Maryland

She later married her beloved husband, Lawson Showell, and moved to Chester, Pennsylvania, where they built a life together. Peggy worked for many years as a domestic worker, later for former Chester Mayor Thaddeus Kirkland, and at Olan Mills until her retirement.

“ Mom, there are so many things that I can say about you, not only being my mother but how you were a very inspirational, strong, loving, caring, nurturing, spiritual, well-rounded black woman! You were the first woman in my life who held me in your arms and loved me from my very first existence on this earth to the very last breath you took on this earth. My heart is broken but in time the very strength that you instilled in me to carry through life will carry me through my remaining days on this earth! I know for a GACT that you will always be with me and that I will always have you in my heart!💔💔💔🙏🙏🙏
🙏🙏🌹 REST IN HEAVENLY PEACE MOM, I will be okay (In time)

LOVE Kevin 🌹
