

Porsha (Victor) L. Edwards

December 6, 1986 - April 14, 2019

Porsha Edwards formerly known as Victor; born December 6, 1986 suddenly departed her life on April 14, 2019. Porsha was born in Jacksonville Florida and was raised in Chester Pennsylvania; and educated in the Chester Upland School District.

Porsha enjoyed caring for others and always wanted to be a caregiver. For years she took care of various family members and friends. Later, when Porsha moved to Richmond Virginia she worked and served as a Dietary Aide/Homemaker for Symphony Manor of Richmond. With her beautiful spirit, Porsha always formed a unique bond with anyone she met. She made everyone feel special in their own way. If you were ever around her you were surely guaranteed a smile on your face and a warm hello. Porsha also loved to cook and swore she could cook anything better than anyone! Porsha was such a special person who brought love to so many and cared for others whole heartedly. If it wasn't her sassy choice of words, then it was her incredible dance moves that would surely brighten up any room. When Porsha arrived, we knew the party was here!

As we remember Porsha "Victor" Edwards, remember the good times you shared together. Remember the laughter; as she would want us to. And while we all knew her in different parts of her life, hold on to the bond that YOU shared with Porsha and continue her legacy for eternity.

Porsha leaves to cherish her memories; her mother Sondra Jennings, her two sisters Jalaya & Asia. Grandmother Vera Ball, Aunt Lisa Edwards and a host of cousins and friends.
