

Robert D. Taylor

July 3, 1943 - August 13, 2020

Robert D. Taylor, Sr was called home on August 13, 2020 at his residence in Lansdowne, Pa. For most of his early life, Robert was a resident of Philadelphia. Born on July 3, 1943, to the late Emanuel and Virginia Taylor. During his elementary schooling early on, Robert was an avid reader with an inquisitive spirit. A graduate of West Philadelphia High School, Robert graduated with honors. Robert also has a brother, Emanuel Taylor II who is best known as an "Allen."

Soon after high school, Robert enlisted in the United States Air Force on October 16, 1964. He dedicated 4 years of his life to serving our country. On October 15, 1968, Robert was honorably discharged from active duty. On October 15, 1970, Robert enlisted in the United States Air Force reserves to further serve his country. He would continue in the reserves for several years.

In 1969, Robert met the late Paulette Johnson. They wed in 1970. From this union a son, Robert D Taylor, Jr was born. Affectionately known as "Bobby," he was Robert's "little munchkin." Little Bobby took on his father's love of planes, trains, and automobiles.

Robert worked for the United States Postal Service for over 30 years. He quickly soared up the ranks to Chief Vehicle Operations Inspector. Robert took this job very seriously. He was also an avid bowler. For a brief time, he was a member of the PBA (Professional Bowlers Association). He has countless trophies and awards. Robert also played softball and tennis in his spare time.

Robert leaves to cherish his memory; his son, Robert D Taylor, Jr, his brother Emanuel A Taylor III and wife Norma T Taylor, his nieces and nephew Andrea Mendez, Denise Pollard, and Emanuel A Taylor IV, and other relatives and friends.

Prayerfully submitted, The Family

Cemetery Details

PRIVATE

Tribute Wall

“ Robert D. Taylor

---

October 07, 2023 at 11:34 AM

“ Robert D. Taylor

---

October 04, 2023 at 12:55 PM