

Ronald A. Burton

September 18, 1962 - October 19, 2025

Ronald “Sleep” Burton^[1]_[SEP]

Ronald “Sleep” Burton was born on September 18, 1962, in Seattle, Washington, to Norma Elaine Burton and Albert “Slim” Burton. He later moved to Chester, Pennsylvania, where he was educated in the Chester Upland School District and graduated with the Class of 1980.

For the past 33 years, Ronald was a dedicated and devoted employee at Johnson Family Personal Care in Chester, PA. He took great pride in his work and was highly respected by his colleagues.

Ronald had a passion for woodworking, a hobby that allowed him to develop into an expert craftsman in his own right. He also loved watching Philadelphia Eagles games with his best friend, Cheese, and cherished spending quality time with his beloved daughter Ronnie and grandson, Isaiah.

Ronald is survived by his daughter Ronnie, his grandson Isaiah, several brothers and sisters, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends who will forever cherish his memory.

Ronald “Sleep” Burton departed this life peacefully at his home on October 18, 2025. His homegoing service will be held on November 4, 2025, at St. Luke C.C. Church.

“ I remembered Sleep visited Raleigh and went with me to my Real Estate Office and we had the best conversation. He asked so many good questions concerning real estate and how I did my job? Also, He would call my husband Bob(his brother) every other day--I can still hear his voice when he called me---Hello Mommi!!!! He will be truly missed.
