

Sandra Harris-Lewis

January 22, 1944 - November 27, 2018

Sandra Elaine Harris' Lewis was born to Commodore Scott Harris, Sr. (deceased) and Althea M. Perry-Harris on January 22, 1944 at Chester Hospital in Chester, PA.

Sandy, as she was affectionally known, was reared in Calvary Baptist Church in Chester where she taught Sunday School at the age of 16., professing Christ at an early age.

Sandra was educated in the Chester Public School System graduating from Chester High School in 1961.

Mom Sandy, as she was affectionally known by all the children who loved her; loved children and her family meant everything to her. Sandy was there for everyone and with a loving heart would bend over backwards to do all she could for you and yours.

Sandy loved music and was a member of the Grace and Truth Delegation Gospel Choir and the Chester High School Band Parent Association. Sandy was actively involved in any school activities her daughter was involved in. Sandy loved singing, arts and crafts, Bingo, Pinochle, Pokeno, and board games. Sandy's adventurous spirit led to her love of watching her husband, Nolan, bowl and traveling to various amusement parks, Atlantic City and their annual vacationing to Wildwood, New Jersey for their Wedding Anniversaries. They also enjoyed summer trips visiting their families in the South. Watching her stories was her ultimate thrill (DO NOT CALL between 12:30 pm - 2:00 pm M-F), and game shows. Sandy also had a passion for Holiday spreads and having family cookouts.

Sandy was predeceased by her husband of 46 years, Nolan Lewis; her father, Commodore S. Harris, Sr.; and grandparents, Wilson and Princetta Harris; Nathaniel and Isadora Gadsden-Perry.

Sandy's spirit and memory will live on in her daughters, Tracey L. Harris and Cynthelia Lewis; sons, Nolan Sylvester Lewis and Kevin N, Gandy, Sr.; brothers, Commodore S. Harris, Jr. (Barbara), Theron L. Harris (Matilda), Lovell Harris, M.D., Brion Harris (Nan), and Kedrick Harris (Denise); sister in law, Linda Lewis; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends.
