

Tamarra S. Turner

February 11, 1983 - November 8, 2024

Tamarra S. Turner was born February 11, 1983, to Travis Johnson and Theresa Walls (Turner) in Chester, Pennsylvania. She graduated from Chester High School. Tamarra, affectionately known as being compassionate and dependable towards her patients was a beacon of light in every room she entered. She enjoyed listening to Rhianna and sitting on the front porch for the breeze of fresh air. She was a family-oriented woman, a daughter, mother, sister, aunt, niece, best-friend, and hard-working nurse. She touched so many lives of those near and far especially in the facility she worked. The void in our hearts is indicative of the absence of her presence. Although her legacy will live on, she is truly and forever missed.

Early Friday afternoon on November 8, 2024, God saw fit to call home one of his greatest nurses. She was proceeded in death and now joins her father (Travis Johnson), grandfather Paul Turner Sr., grandmother (Barbara Jones) and brother (Michael Robert Turner-Ferguson Jr.) and a host of aunts, uncles and cousins on the path to eternity.

She leaves to cherish loving and fond memories: Her daughter; Braelynn Bolton; Mother: Theresa Walls (Turner); Sister: Sydney Turner- Ferguson; Uncles: James (Trina) & Paul Turner; Aunt: Julie (Darren) Harris; Special Friend: Milton Bolton and a host of other sorrowful cousins, other relatives and close friends
