

Tamika S. West

April 30, 1979 - January 1, 2021

Tamika Shakeda West ascended to the lord on January 1, 2021. Surrounded by her spiritual ancestors who guided her into the light of the lord.

Tamika also known as “Big Meek” to many, was born on April 30, 1979 to her loving parents, Elayne West Day and the late William A. Harris in the City of Chester, PA.

She was educated in the Chester and Chichester School District. Tamika was a loving mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, granddaughter, cousin and friend. Meka had a kind and caring heart and would never hesitate to help anyone in need. She loved to be surrounded by her family and friends, weather it was at a party, or the family barbecues. You could always hear her laughing and see her with that bright big smile. Most of all she was passionate about being a mother, and grandmother. They were her greatest blessing in life.

In addition to her biological father William A. Harris, Tamika was predeceased in death by her maternal grandparents Rosetta A. West, and William West. Paternal grandparents Janet Harris and William Harris. Uncles Michael Stewart, and Robert Stewart. Tamika leaves to cherish her many memory: Her mother Elayne West Day, stepfather Erwin Day, daughter Tamykah West, son Tamaaj West, Granddaughter Brooklyn West, brothers Erwin West (Latoya), Andre West (Shunice), Michael West, William A. Harris Jr. sister Dwana Council (Hakeem Council), and bonus sisters her cousins Shamia, Antoinette, Rasheeda, Sakina, Tanesha, and Rosetta. Along with a host of aunts, uncles, and cousins.
