

Terrance L. Kattes

February 24, 1989 - January 3, 2026

Terrance L. Kattes, age 36, was born on February 24, 1989, in Chester, Pennsylvania, to Tamia L. Brown and Eric Kattes. Surrounded by loved ones, he peacefully departed this life on January 3, 2026, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Terrance was a proud graduate of Chester High School, Class of 2007, and later completed his training at Allstate Career School. He built a career as a truck driver and was employed with McLane in New Jersey. Known affectionately as “Money,” Kattes, Cakes, or KDog, Terrance was admired for his intelligence, strong work ethic, and vibrant personality and his spiritual gift of help.

He was a devoted father who cherished his children and valued time with family and friends above all else. Terrance will be remembered for his kindness, generosity, and loving spirit.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Sheila Majors O’Neal and Larry Lyde; his paternal grandparents, Michael and Shirley Kattes; his great-grandparents, William Majors; David and Geraldine Hamlin, and Amos and Frances Morgan

He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved children, JaBril, Terrance Jr., Nicolas, and Ines; the love of his life, Angelica Carrion; his parents, Tamia L.

Brown and Eric Kattes brothers Tavon (Marshell) Brown, Tamier Brown, Eric Kattes Jr. and Dametrius Kattes; sisters Tamai L. Brown, DeShae Kattes, and Dynae Kattes; his special aunt and uncle, Garrett and Crystal Brisbane; his godparents, Thomas and Connie Edwards; and a host of aunts, uncles and a host of relatives and friends.

“ To The Family:

I was truly saddened to learn of the passing of Terrance. My heart truly aches for all of you.

Praying that our Heavenly Father will provide His divine comfort to you all, now and in the days ahead! He is able! Lean on Him!

Sorrowfully.

“ To Angelica, the children and all who love Terrance.
There are no words that can fully express how sorry I am of your beloved Terrance. He was (and will always be) an incredible father, a loving, and remarkable man. His legacy lives on in his beautiful children that adore him. May his love fill your hearts with endless memories and comfort. God grant my niece and her children peace, strength, and comfort, and may Terrance soul rest in eternal peace, in Jesus name Amen ❤️🙏
