

Theresa Marie McDuffie

August 7, 1950 - July 1, 2022

Theresa Marie McDuffie was born to Mary Lee McDuffie in Brooklyn, New York, on August 7, 1950. She worked hard at an early age and became independent enough to move from home to live just minutes away from her mother and siblings in Queens, NY.

She lived a very colorful life while raising four children in New York and later moved to Chester, Pennsylvania, where she was immersed in the Christian Community, which has been one of her support systems. Theresa graduated from Nursing school in Chester, PA, and worked in nursing facilities for a few years. She then started working in several malls as a Sales Associate for stores like John Wanamaker, Clovers, Sears, and K-mart, and later retired from JC Penney's. After retirement, she started working at Crozer keystone Library.

Theresa is survived by her loving family of two sons - Vincent McDuffie and Dennis McDuffie, two daughters - Robin McDuffie and Tiffany McDuffie, and 11 grandchildren - Devoun McDuffie, Shaynie McDuffie, Shantelle McDuffie, Shaquida McDuffie, Shalisa McDuffie, Dennis McDuffie Jr., Vincent McDuffie Jr., Larry Carter, Nya McDuffie, Maiah Madison, and Tyler McDuffie-McClain, six great grand-children, her sister - Judith Ann McDuffie, Brother - Stanley McDuffie, sister-in-law- Alberta Duncan, two brothers-in law, Edward Johnson and Louis Fryson, several nieces and nephews, and best friends - Connie

White and Merle Jones. She is preceded in death by her sisters - Mary Ann Brame, Haddy Mae Johnson, Jeanette McDuffie, and her mother - Mary Lee McDuffie.
