

Wanda R. Stewart

July 28, 1965 - February 14, 2020

Wanda R. Stewart (54) of Chester, PA surrendered to the will of the lord on February 14, 2020 at University of Pennsylvania Hospital surrounded by her loving family.

Wanda was born in Camden, NJ to Terresa Stewart and the late Walter Blake. She was raised and educated in Chester, PA. She was a member of Integrity Christian Center. Wanda was a private childcare provider and affectionately known as mom, mommom or Aunt Wanda to many in Chester.

Wanda was a loving mother, daughter, granddaughter, sister, cousin and friend. She gave and loved with her entire heart and without giving it a second thought. Her place was where family gathered to share a good meal and great laugh while being surrounded by love. Wanda welcomed everyone and if she called you family, she loved you as such. She was very passionate about her “babies” and making sure children had a safe and loving environment when away from their parents.

In addition to her biological father, Wanda was predeceased by grandfather Irving Saunders, brothers Louis Banks and Walter (Weezy) Blake Jr., her nephews Damar Wilson and Leo Bowers, and goddaughter Nyeesha Carter. Survivors: Her loving memory will be forever cherished by her husband John “Dink” Cottman, mother Terresa Stewart and father Edward Triggs, Grandmother Virginia Doward, daughters, Semmiko Stewart (Duron), Shaunita Fletcher Cooper (Myron), Terrell Newsome, sons Raneer Pitman, Kevin Fletcher, Terry Newsome, Davonte Hayward and Kristian Chin, 3 godchildren Ra'Mya Henderson, Nakayla Carter and James Taylor, and bonus children Jakeena Holmes and Mark "Mizzy" Harris, sisters Edwena Stewart Ruley (Tyrone), Michelle and Dawn Triggs, Sondraia Stewart, Georgina Dalie, Waltrina, Myrtle, Teresa, Cynthia, Shabre and Monica Blake, and Surlena Verdell, brothers Heath Stewart, Walter Jr., Joseph, Harvey and Brendan Blake, 18 grandchildren and a host of other relatives, "adopted" children and friends.
