

Wessie L. Tull

March 9, 1937 - November 27, 2025

Wessie Lee Samuel-Tull was born on March 9, 1937, in Boston, Georgia to Edward and Wessie Mae Samuel. She grew up surrounded by the love of her siblings, Mary Alice (Johnson), William Dydell, and Edward Jr. Wessie was educated in the Chester School District and later married the love of her life, George W. Tull in 1963. She carried a deep sense of family with her throughout her life, building a home grounded in faith and care. George and Wessie were blessed with five children: Joyce, Angela, Faith, Renée, and George, Jr.

Wessie spent many years employed at the Franklin Mint before retiring as a meal supervisor at the Chester Senior Center. Her work was always marked by kindness, responsibility, and an unwavering commitment to her community. Wessie lived a life rich in creativity and joy. She loves traveling, singing, and watercolor painting, and she cherished any activity that brought her closer to her family. A faithful member of Providence Baptist Church, she was baptized there by the honorable Rev. Barnes. She was a member of the Deaconess Board, the Sarah Harrell Missionary Board, and the Board of Trustees. Her voice was a cherished part of the church's ministry, singing as a part of the Senior Choir, the Mass Choir, and the Voices of Providence. In the 1970s, she also served as an advisor with the Young Adult Choir, guiding younger members with her warmth and steady encouragement.

Her legacy continues through her grandchildren (Dahron, Ebony, Asia, Chimeye, Chinée, Jameka, Jimmia, Leanna, and Maurice) and many great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. They carry forward her spirit of strength, creativity, and love. Wessie Lee lived a life of generosity and deep family devotion. She will be remembered for her gentle humor, her creativity, her steadfast love, and the joy she poured into every room she entered. Her family and friends will forever
