A Time to Embrace

Along with the love and devotion to his family, Butch was an avid sports fan, especially of Eagles football. He loved to travel, hang out with friends, and could always be relied on to host card games. He also loved horseshoes, and swimming. There was never a shortage of family cook-outs and fun times at his house, where you were guaranteed to have a great time.

A Time to Laugh

He was an immense jokester and would kid around with people constantly. You knew you were liked because he would find a way to tease you. He loved holidays and would always tell his family, "Just give me an envelope."

We thank and praise Almighty God that he received Christ as his personal Savior on January 23rd, 2023 under the guidance of his good friend Elder Aaron Asbury!
