

Willie Mae Hicks

December 20, 1937 - February 10, 2020

Willie Mae Hicks, affectionately known as "Mae" was born on December 20, 1937, the youngest of 4 children, to Rufus and Mary Alice Cofield in Newport News, VA.

On July 27, 1956, Mae married the love of her life, Frank Hicks Sr. and from, this union 3 children were born, Michelle, Patricia and Frank Hicks Jr.

In 1961, Mae, was baptized as a servant of Jehovah. Mae strived to give her very best to serve Jehovah, while serving as a continuous auxiliary pioneer for over 15 years in the Chester Congregation. Mae loved the ministry, where she preached the good news about the wonderful hope of Jehovah God's kingdom, which Jesus taught us to pray for at Matthew, chapter six. It brought her such joy helping people come to learn about her heavenly father Jehovah. Mae was a homemaker and seamstress most of her life, later working at Michelle Steven's Daycare until her death. Mae loved to sew, crochet, knit and cook, especially for her grandchildren and adopted spiritual son Donald Morgan, who loved her," cheese grits" and "spoon bread". Mae's favorite color was "red".

Mae is preceded in death by her husband of 49 years, her parents and two of her sisters, Audrey McIntyre and Jeanette Blizzard.

Mae leaves to cherish her memory, SIBLING, Mattie Ruth Stevens,

DAUGHTERS, Michelle Stevens and Patricia Gray (Anthony), and SON, Frank Hicks Jr. (Sheila), (11) GRANDCHILDREN, Ivan, Daniel, Maive, Jamilah, Janel, Jabril, Nija, Neia, NaMia, Janisia and Frank III, (8) GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN, (1) GREAT-GREAT GRANDDAUGHTER, (1) SPIRITUAL ADOPTED SON, Donald Morgan, and a host of family and friends.
