

Zina M. Pinder-Boyd

August 12, 1935 - November 30, 2023

Zina Mae Alexander Pinder-Boyd, a ray of light, strength, and love, passed away peacefully on November 30, 2023, in Chester, Pennsylvania. She was born on August 12, 1935, to the late Lula Green and Samuel Alexander, the second of six children.

Zina's life was adorned with achievements and a dedication to her children, church, and community, earning accolades and recognition for her compassionate service. She was a beloved member of the St. Mark C.C. Church, where she served actively as a choir member, pastor aid, and part of the flower ministry.

Zina showcased her devotion, hard work, and empathy through various roles, from her early days at Ship and Shore in Upland, Pennsylvania, to serving as a private duty caregiver for multiple families. For 18 years, Zina also contributed her skills and kindness at Mercy Haverford Hospital in Havertown, Pennsylvania, retiring in 1994.

Family was the cornerstone of Zina's life. She is survived by her children Gloria Pinder, Walter Pinder, Darryl Pinder, and Alfonzo Pinder, along with her cherished 17 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren, and 3 great-great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews. Zina was predeceased and a loving sister to 5 siblings. She is survived by her sister Janice Warren and brother-in-law Tommie Warren, and sister-in-law Demora Alexander. Zina was preceded in death by her husband Henry A. Boyd, and children Christine Pinder, Donna Carter, John R. Pinder III, and Anthony R. Pinder, along with 3 grandchildren.

Beyond her work and support of the church, Zina found joy in life's simple pleasures. She loved traveling, savoring good food, and creating lasting memories with her family and friends. Zina also had a passion for fashion, which was especially evident as she graced herself in her Sunday's best, dressing to impress.

Zina will forever be remembered for her resilience, warmth, and the love she shared with all who knew her.
